

Steve Laevastu & Roger Turner are your EXCLUSIVE Ravenna Realtors

Here is what our clients have to say

Dear Roger:

I would like to express my satisfaction with you and your associates on the sale of our home this last month. Like the average person, I have not dealt with enough sales of homes to be comfortable with the ins and outs of the procedures. I called your office and shortly you and Jim Parr arrived to talk with my wife and I. We were comfortable with you gentlemen immediately.

I was a bit hesitant as to what to put as a price on the house and suggested one. You told me you thought we could get more. At least I was prudent enough to follow your advice and we put it on the market at a higher price. We sold it in a few days at a better price than I had anticipated. During that time, I talked with both you gentlemen on concerns that I had and you were very reassuring and answered my concerns.

I have had many solicitations from Real Estate offices and different sales people over the years and just want to say my wife and I are happy we chose you. If and when we decide to put another house up for sale, I'm sure we will call you.

Thank you,
Vincent and Marion Nelson

Dear Steve,

We would like to thank you for the top-notch service you provided as our selling agent. You were responsive, timely, informative, friendly, very accessible, and very hands-on.

You convinced us in just one meeting that we should choose you as our agent, and you were right! Our entire experience was seamless (for us, anyway!) and very easy.

You offered us great tips on little things we could do to improve the marketability of our home, and our house looked stunning while it was on the market, in large part due to your diligence in keeping it up while we were away. We were very impressed by the compelling and comprehensive flyer you created for our home, and the beautiful pictures you posted online.

Ultimately, our home sold for $20k more than the asking price, and you negotiated a fantastic deal. You kept our best interests at heart through the whole process, while also remaining fair to the buyers and potential buyers. We will attest that you have great integrity and reliability, in addition to being a terrific salesman!

We also really appreciated your offer to assist us with any of the closing documents on our new home (which we were purchasing through my late grandmother's trust, and therefore, didn't have an agent for), at no additional cost. This offer exemplifies the high-touch service you provide to your clients.

Thank you again for all of your successful efforts. We will be sure to recommend you to all of our friends and family, and will definitely use you again in the future if/when we are buying or selling a home!

Warmest regards,
Michael and Jessica McFarlane

MAYOR NICKELS STATEMENT ON CLEAN ENERGY BILL

SEATTLE - Mayor Greg Nickels today released this statement on the passage of the American Clean Energy and Security Act in the House of Representatives:

"This is a landmark vote that will help Seattle and all other American cities transform to a clean-energy economy. For years, there was debate over the existence of global warming. Then came discussions about what to do about it. Today, we take substantive action. Earlier this week, as president of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, I sent personal e-mails to more than 440 mayors urging them to contact their congressional representatives in support of this legislation. Last week, I met with Speaker Nancy Pelosi to discuss how we could work together on our shared goal of passing the bill. We now enter the era of clean energy. I stand ready to work with President Obama and Congress to create jobs in this new economy, and to lay the foundation for a cleaner and more secure energy future. This is good for our environment, good for our people, and good for Seattle."

CITY FUNDING AVAILABLE FOR INDIVIDUAL SEATTLE ARTISTS

Applications accepted for visual, literary and film/media art projects, deadline is Aug. 11

SEATTLE — The Office of Arts & Cultural Affairs is accepting applications for the 2010 CityArtists Projects program that supports Seattle-based individual artists working in visual, literary and film/media arts. Funding awards range up to $10,000 to support projects in 2010.

"During these challenging financial times, the arts are part of the solution," said Michael Killoren, director of the Office of Arts & Cultural Affairs. "They make our cities places where people want to live and work. The cultural sector is part of the economy just like any other industry with workers who pay taxes and contribute in other ways."

CityArtists Projects is an annual funding program that provides support to individual Seattle artists to conceive, develop and present new, in-progress or remounted works taken to the next stage. Projects must include a public presentation in the city. The program encourages a broad range of artistic and cultural expression that reflects Seattle's diversity. Funding is offered to artists in clusters of disciplines in the visual, media and literary arts and performing arts in alternate years.

This year, CityArtists awarded $225,000 to 39 artists working in the performing arts. The funded projects will involve more than 256 paid artists. Thirty of the 39 artist projects funded are first-time recipients, representing 77 percent of the awards. The awards range from $1,500 to $10,000, with an average award of $5,769.

While CityArtists Projects gives priority to projects by independent artists, lead artists of nonprofit organizations may submit project proposals. However, artists affiliated with an organization must distinguish their proposals from the seasonal work of their organizations.

A link to the online application is available at www.seattle.gov/arts. The application deadline is Tuesday, Aug. 11, 2009. For more information, contact Marcia Iwasaki at (206) 233-3946, marcia.iwasaki@seattle.gov or Irene Gomez, at (206) 684-7310, irene.gomez@seattle.gov.

SEATTLE OFFERS COMPOST BINS AT HUGE DISCOUNTS

Homeowners Can Save Hundreds of Dollars

SEATTLE - Seattleites can save 75 percent or more on the cost of high-quality compost bins this summer, thanks to big discounts being offered by Seattle Public Utilities (SPU).

Between now and the end of September, SPU is selling compost bins that normally retail at more than $100 for just $25, helping residents convert food scraps and yard clippings into nutrient-rich compost for their gardens.

With a 19 percent increase this year in the number of households planning to grow their own produce, composting at home can provide the nutrients to help fruits and vegetables flourish naturally.

Carl Woestwin, landscape conservation manager at SPU, said that by composting at home, consumers can have beautiful gardens and thriving vegetable patches without resorting to chemical fertilizers.

"Composting at home is an easy way to turn vegetative waste into a natural soil builder that will help plants flourish and save water," said Woestwin. "With these discounts, making your own compost at home has never been easier."

Food scraps and yard waste are valuable resources when composted or used as mulch in the garden. Home composting is a simple way for gardeners to conserve water and build healthy soil, without having to buy compost from the store.

Seattle gardeners can take advantage of two great offers -

- Green Cone Food Composting Bins Two cones for $40, when purchased together. One cone for $25. Retail cost is more than $100 each. Limit two per household.
- Yard Waste Compost Bins $25 each. Retail cost is more than $100. Limit one per household.

The compost bins can be purchased at www.seattle.gov/binsandbarrels or by calling (206) 684-0190.

The Green Cone food waste composters turn food scraps such as fruits and vegetables, breads and grains, coffee grounds, and tea bags into nutrient-rich compost for customers' gardens.

The yard waste compost bins transform grass clippings, leaves, dead plants, small twigs, and most weeds into a natural soil builder.

Customers can also purchase high quality rain barrels for $75 plus tax. Rain barrels allow gardeners to collect Seattle's famed rain for use in their yards. Depending on how much it rains, a rain barrel or two collecting water from a 500 to 600 square-foot roof area can provide enough water to care for the plants and flowerpots on a deck or patio for several weeks.

NIGHT OUT AGAINST CRIME - 2009 NIGHT OUT

This year, night out is on Tuesday, August 4, 2009.

Registration deadline is July 31, 2009

You should register in the precinct your neighborhood is located in.

This year the Seattle Police Department is using Night Out to thank our strong community partners. Night Out is a great opportunity to celebrate your efforts to keep your neighborhood safe. Pat each other on the back for your continued involvement and dedication to public safety. It is also a great time to invite new neighbors to join you and talk with friends and family who may not enjoy the benefits of a Block Watch about getting one started. And we'll have our officers out to as many Night Out celebrations as we can, to say "Thank You" in person!

WHAT IS NIGHT OUT?

"Night Out" is a national Crime Prevention event. It is designed to heighten crime prevention awareness, increase neighborhood support in anti-crime efforts, and unite our communities. It is a great chance to learn about crime prevention, while also celebrating your community and spending time with your neighbors.

HOW DO I CLOSE MY STREET FOR NIGHT OUT?

If you do not live on an arterial street and you do not close your intersection, you are welcome to close the street to traffic for your Night Out Celebration. Indicate on the registration form that you plan to close the street. Individual blocks are responsible for providing barricades, but a street closure sign can be downloaded from this website. On the registration form please mark not only the street name but also the hundred block of the street.

IS THERE A FEE TO CLOSE MY STREET?

The City waives the fee for Night Out participants.

WHAT IF AN EMERGENCY VEHICLE NEEDS TO GET THROUGH DURING OUR NIGHT OUT CELEBRATION?

When setting up for your event, make sure to keep tables to one side of the street and assign two individuals to respond to the end of the street to remove the barricades for the vehicle.

HOW DO I REQUEST POLICE OR FIRE PARTICIPATION IN MY NIGHT OUT CELEBRATION?

All of the registered Night Out Events are shared with the individual precincts as well as the fire department. As time allows, personnel who work in your neighborhood will drop by. We ask that you not call the individual Fire Stations, as the number of calls could overwhelm them.

Chinatown-International District Summer Festival hours are: Saturday, 11 AM - 8 PM; Sunday, 11 AM - 6 PM. Admission is Free.
